R. GORDON FOR STATE AUDITOR

is Friends Will Urge His Nomination.

te Democratic Executive Committee Will Be Asked by Guilford Citizens to Nominate Well Known Guilford Legislator to Make the Race—Prominent Citizens Endorse His Candidacy—Mr. Abbott Not a Candidate.

His many friends throughout the unty will urge the State Democratic xecutive Committee to nominate Dr. R. Gordon, of Jamestown, for the of- e of state auditor when that com- ittee meets for the purpose of select- g a candidate to succeed the late B. Dixon. Dr. Gordon has received the rsement of the county officials, layor Stafford and President Justice, the Chamber of Commerce, County hairman Sherrill, members of the Board Aldermen, Judge Eure and other rominent citizens of the city.

Governor Kitchin has appointed B. F. ixon, Jr., son of the late auditor, as ditor, pending the election of his suc- ssor at the polls in November. The resent encumbent will not be a candi- te for election, so he will only serve ntil the candidate elected in November alifies on January 1, 1911.

County Auditor J. Leslie Abbott has en mentioned for the place, but when yesterday he stated positively that aid not want the place and could not induced to run. Besides being county litor Mr. Abbott is special auditor ap- inted by the governor to audit the ac- unts of the several state institutions d this will be more remunerative than uld the office of state auditor.

Dr. Gordon, who will be Guilford's ndidate, is well and favorably known oughout the entire state, having serv- with ability and distinction through e last three sessions of the state leg- ature as a member of the House of epresentatives from Guilford. He was recognized leader and authority in all atters pertaining to state finances and iring his last two terms served on both e finance and appropriations commit- es, being chairman of the latter. In ose positions he convinced all of his mirable qualifications as a safe and udent, but liberal financier and pos- sing excellent qualities especially ted to the duties of state auditor.

In general legislation Dr. Gordon was ually capable, his attention to prac- l measures of economic reform being phasized by passing the first county ary law for Guilford in 1905 and his unty auditor law for Guilford in 1907; so practical road, drainage and other luable local measures which have roven of great benefit to the county. Many of these measures have been opied by other counties and equally satisfactory results have followed.

Dr. Gordon belongs to the construc- ve school of the present generation and s friends are anxious that the state hould be given the benefit of his ser- ices in a broader field of endeavor, all ecognizing that he would make an ef- ient state auditor.

It is understood that telegrams were ceived here yesterday asking the sup- rt of the county Democracy for several ll known Democrats, among them be- A. W. Graham, Granville; E. J. ale, Cumberland; S. A. Ashe, Wake. ll of these gentlemen are well known re, but it is understood that Guilford ill be united in urging the candidacy Dr. Gordon.

It was learned here yesterday that r. C. M. Thompson, of Lexington, would so be a candidate and that the cir- mstance of his being a one-armed Con- derate soldier would be urged in his vor.

DIXON REPLIES AGAIN TO HIS RICHMOND CRITICS

Made a Red Hot Speech At Matinee Performance Yesterday in Lynchburg.

Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 30.—Richmond critics who attacked Thomas Dixon's latest play "The Sins of the Father" were attacked in turn by Mr. Dixon in a powerful speech at the matinee today in response to many enthusiastic curtain calls. He said:

"Five years ago the Norfolk papers praised The Clansman, the Richmond critics condemned it, this year the same thing happens. The millions who have seen The Clansman have unanimously endorsed the Norfolk verdict as they will again in the new play. The statement that my drama is indecent is utterly false. The great crowd in Richmond did not think so or say so. A half dozen clergymen who were present praised it heavily as did a number of southern mothers, who were invited to meet me after the performance. I dare any critic in America to submit the question to a jury of southern mothers. I will put up $10,000 in any bank against $1,000 from them and agree to forfeit it to any charity if such a jury will find my play indecent, I will do more, I challenge any critics to find in the South one disinterested intelligent mother who has growing sons and daughters who will witness the play and say it is indecent, or its influence corrupting. If so I'll withdraw it the next night. If "the Sins of the Father" is indecent, the ten commandments and the story of The Prodigal Son are indecent, and should not be publicly read. The man only to whom my play can possibly be obnoxious is one guilty of the sin I am striking at. I didn't write it to please such men. I did write it to please good women and I submit it to their verdict."

MR. MARION SMITH DEAD.

Prominent Citizen of Eastern Guilford Passed Away Yesterday.

His many friends in the city and throughout the entire county will learn with regret of the death of Mr. Marion Smith, of Gibsonville, which occurred yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mr. Smith had been in failing health for some time. He was 46 years of age.

The deceased was one of the most prominent citizens of the eastern part of Guilford and was well known throughout the entire county. For years he conducted a livery business in Gibsonville, where he counted every man his friend. He is survived by his wife.

The funeral will be held from Friedens' Lutheran church Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the services to be conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. P. Parker, assisted by Rev. C. J. Sox. The interment will follow in the church graveyard.

B. Y. P. U. OFFICERS.

First Baptist Young People Complete Organization.

At a meeting last night of the young people of the First Baptist church in the Sunday school room, the organization of the Baptist Young People's Union was completed by the enrollment of members and the adoption of a constitution The officers, previously elected, are: G. H. Wilcox, president; Vander Liles, first vice president; Miss Clyde Peele, second vice president; Miss Williard White, secretary: Walter Combs, treasurer; Miss Lois Jennings, pianist; Miss Sarah Monroe, assistant pianist.

The membership is enthusiastic and the meetings, which will be held every Friday night at eight o'clock, will include bright and interesting programs.

Hospital Report For September.

During September fifty one patients were received at St. Leo's hospital, thirteen of them charity patients. During the month two died at the hospital and there were four births. Sixty three patients were discharged during the month, leaving 33 in the hospital at the end of the month.

Passed Mexican Dollar.

W. W. Minus was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of passing a Mexican dollar on Ellis Munday and refusing to refund the silver dollar he had received in exchange when the alleged fraud was discovered. He will be given a hearing before Judge Eure this morning.

Opening At Brown Belk Co.

The annual fall opening of Brown Belk Company commenced Thursday and will last through the day. The company is putting in a new front, but this has not prevented a large attendance of ladies to inspect the fine showing of millinery, dress goods, ready-to-wear, etc.

MAN KILLED BY SPEEDING TRAIN

Had Letters Addressed to W. D. Hughes.

Was Lying Squarely Across the Track Near Brown Summit As No. 7 Came Along Yesterday At 12:30—Instantly Killed—Brought Here on No. 35 Last Night and Carried to Undertaking Rooms.

A white man, believed to be W. D. Hughes, of Cliffside, N. C., was killed by train No. 7 yesterday afternoon at 12:30 1 1-2 miles north of Brown Summit. He was lying squarely across the track. The wheels passed over both legs at the ankles, cutting off the feet. The skull was crushed, but the face was not disfigured.

The body was brought to Greensboro on No. 35 and carried to the undertaking rooms of Huntley-Stockton-Hill Company and prepared for burial.

In his pockets were two letters addressed to W. D. Hughes, Station A, Danville, Va. One of these letters was from R. L. Wade and postmarked Cliffside. The signature of the other had been torn away but it was on the stationery of the Greenville Roller Shops and its contents indicated that it was from the dead man's wife.

The body is that of a young man, clean shaven, dark hair, and from 20 to 25 years old. It was clad in a dark striped suit. Fairly clean linen and a neatly tied cravat indicated that the man was not a professional hobo. The hat was a brown felt, the shoes of good quality and comparatively new. The first joint of the right forefinger had been lost previously.

Besides the letters there was found in his pocket a prescription blank from Conyers' drug store with the name Bob Moore and some other name not so legible written in pencil.

While it is inferred that the body is that or W. D. Hughes, of Cliffside, there is yet some uncertainty and the undertakers would be glad if any who think they might identify him from the description would call today and inspect the remains. The railroad authorities sent numerous telegrams trying to locate the relatives of the unfortunate man, but had not succeeded last night.

A sharp curve in the road near the scene of the accident prevented the engineer from seeing the prostrate form of the man in time to stop the train.

May Be From White Oak.

Late last night at the offices of the Southern a wire was received from Danville stating that the young man was probably from White Oak. Another wire, however, stated that he was probably from Greenville.

Enrollment Day at the First Baptist Church.

Superintendent Spencer, of the First Baptist church Sunday-school, has arranged a fine program for the service Sunday morning. This will be enrollment day with the school and an effort is being made to increase the enrollment to 500. Attractive invitations headed, "catch my pal," have been sent out and it is hoped that the campaign will be successfully launched. There will be an address by Dr. J. L. Mann, of the city schools and special music has been arranged. The exercises will begin at 9:15 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Church of the Covenant.

The revival meetings at the Church of the Covenant contineu with increased interest. Rev. Mr. McGeachy, who is assisting the pastor, is preaching strong sermons and the congregation is taking profound interest in the meeting. There will be services this morning at 8 o'clock but no services tonight. Sunday there will be three services. Preaching at 11 a. m., 5 and 8 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend.

Stole Hitching Rein.

Mr. W. H. Swing, of Guilford, was in town yesterday and while here left his horse hitched on a vacant lot on Davie street. When he returned to get his horse and buggy he found that somebody had stolen the halter strap and let the horse loose.

CROPESTIMATES FOR YEAR 1910

Outlook For Large Yield is Encouraging.

Most Reliable Estimates Are That There Will Be Sixty Million Bushels of Corn, One Hundred and Twenty Five Million Pounds of Tobacco and Six Hundred Thousand Bales of Cotton—Nebo Passenger Station.

Raleigh, Sept. 30.—The most reliable available crop estimates for 1910 in North Carolina are for sixty million bushels of corn to be harvested from probably three million acres seeded; for one hundred and twenty-five milloin pounds of tobacco from 144,000 acres planted and for 600,000 bales of cotton from an acreage of probably 1,410,000 acres. There is phenomenal interest in the corn crop all over the state, due largely to the special work of the state and the United States departments of agriculture in furthering interest in intensive cultivation of corn.

Mrs. George Terrill, who was Miss Lovie Parks, died yesterday in Baltimore where she had gone for an operation. The remains were brought back home today for interment. She was 42 years old and leaves a husband and seven children.

Plans for a material enlargement of the passenger station at Nebo, west Morganton, have been filed by the Southern railway, the improvements being in compliance with demands made by citizens in complaints filed with the commission, and they include ample waiting room facilities for both white and colored passengers.

There was conducted from the Cary Methodist church this afternoon the funeral of Mr. Adolph Jones, aged 88 years, who passed away at his home in Apex yesterday after a long and useful career.

Gen. B. S. Royster, Oxford; Lt. Col. P. J. Macon, Warrenton; Major W. C. Rodman, Washington and Major L. W. Young, Asheville, are commissioned by Governor Kitchin and will start at once to St. Louis as delegates from the North Carolina National Guard to the National Guard Association to be in session there October 3 to 6.

TUESDAY JEWISH NEW YEAR

The Day Will Be Observed by Hebrews As a Holiday.

Next Tuesday, Oct. 4. will be the Jewish New Year, marking the beginning of the year, 5671. On that day many of the Jew business houses will be closed and the day will be a holiday.

There are quite an abundance of festivals and holidays in the Jewish calendar, but none touches the hearts of the children of Israel to such depths as does Rosh Hashonah, as the New Year's Day is designated by the Israelites. To them it is the important day in the year—the day on which God sits in judgment. Three books of account is opened wherein is recorded the fate of the wicked, the righteous and those belonging to an intermediate class. Rosh Hashonah does not, like most other Jewish holidays, commemorate any historical event, but is rather a time for repentance. The New Year begins a sacred period known as 10 days of penitence. The last of these rays, the Day of Atonement, is the most solemn of the entire year.

Bessemer High School Defeats Greensboro Cubs.

The Bessemer high school baseball team defeated the Greensboro Cubs yesterday afternoon by the score of 11 to 10. Despite the large score, it was a hard fought and interesting game from start to finish. The features of the game for Bessemer avenue were the three-base hits of Bakke, the pitching of Aiken and three 2-base hits by Rankin. For Greensboro the steady playing and good team work of the whole team was the feature. The batteries: Bessemer, Aiken and Scurlock; Cubs, Murray and Sapp, Beasley and Beasley.

Football Game Here Next Saturday.

The first football game of the season locally will take place October 8th between Reidsville and the Greensboro High school teams at the Cone Athletic park.

The Ireland Bible Class room will accommodate more than one hundred resident Alumnae, come test its capacity.

PRISONERS FOR ATLANTA.

Seven Here En Route for Federal Prison From Wilkes County—Boys for Washington.

United States Marshal W. E. Logan, acompanied by Deputies Chas. H. Holland, S. C. Webster, Richard Smithy, Harrison Anderson and Fred W. Young, arrived yesterday from Wilkesboro, where court has been in progress during the week. They had in custody seven prisoners being carried to Atlanta and two boys to be taken to the reform school in Washington.

The prisoners were placed in the county jail until this morning. Those to be taken to Atlanta are Quince Day, Andrey Welborne, Frank Cheek, Pink Church, C. B. Dyer, Bruss Church and Lum Holloway, the latter being a negro. All are to serve a year and a day, excepting Day, who goes down for fifteen months. They were charged with blockading. They will be taken to Atlanta this morning by Deputies Holland, Webster, Smithy and Anderson. Deputy Marshal Baley and Deputy Young will leave Monday for Washington with the boys, Oscar and Arthur Oliver, who were convicted of breaking into a postoffice.

A number of other cases were tried during the week.

MRS. MILES ENTERTAINS.

Gave Luncheon Yesterday in Honor of Misses Hatty Watlington and Helen Bouldin.

Mrs. G. H. Miles entertained delightfully at a luncheon yesterday at her home on North Edgeworth street in honor of Misses Hatty Watlington and Helen Bouldin, who will be come brides next week.

The dining room of the Miles home had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being pink. Pink candles shed a soft glow over the scene, making a charming effect. The table was covered in white damask with a centerpiece of Mexican lace. On this rested a crystal vase filled with dahlias. At each place was a place card attached to a souvenir, the gift of the hostess, this being tied with pink ribbon. Several appropriate toasts were made.

Five courses were served, consisting of turkey, cranberry sauce, peas, brown gravy on dressing, celery and hot rolls and stuffed tomatoes, chicken salad, olives, wafers, frozen peaches, cake, coffee and mints.

CONFERENCE OF LAYMEN.

Considerable Interest Attached to Meeting To Be Held Next Week.

The fact that six distinguished leaders of the Laymen's Missionary Movement will be present from as many different states, one coming all the way from Chicago, shows the importance the leaders attach to the Laymen's Conference in Greensboro next Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 3 and 4.

The conference is primarily for missionary committees, a limited number of other laymen who are deeply interested in missions, and pastors.

It is an opportunity of a lifetime, so far as methods are concerned, and all pastors and chairmen of missionary committees should see that every member of their committee, and a few other picked men are present.

Some of the churches have not yet reported the number of their members and the number of regular givers to foreign missions; this information should be given to Mr. C. C. McLean today, or certainly before Sunday so that he can compile his report for the session Monday afternoon.

The Revival At Centenary Methodist Church.

The congregation at Centenary Methodist church last night heard a strong sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. M. Litaker, from Rev. 6:2. "And I saw and beheld a white horse; and he that sat on him had a bow; and he went forth conquering and to conquer."

The victorious Christ was the theme dwelt on and many persons came forward at the close of the service to testify to the fact that they had enlisted under his blood stained banner. Today at the usual hours the services will be continued.

Fall Opening At Gilmer's.

ACTIVITY IN REAL ESTATE

Business is Steadily Picking up.

Real Estate Men State That the Outlook Is For Fine Business During the Fall Months—Over Hundred Thousand Dollars Worth of Real Estate Changed Hands During Past Month—Few Vacant Houses.

Real estate dealers in Greensboro state that their business is steadily getting better and the outlook is for a fine business during the fall and winter months. Usually October and November are banner months in real estate circles and it is believed by those who are in close touch with the conditions that the activity will increase materially. Usually the financial status of a community is reckoned by the real estate market and it can well be said that the market value of real estate in the city and county is steadily increasing.

Another fact that should be considered is that there are comparatively few good houses for rent in the city at present and nearly all the substantial modern dwellings inside the city limits are occupied. Of course, there are a few good houses on the outskirts and a larger number of houses of the third and fourth class unoccupied, but usually these are not desirable. A real estate dealer stated yesterday that good houses are scarce in the city and that his firm, which does a large rental business, had only one really desirable house for rent. He predicted that Greensboro was gradually regaining her financial footing and in a few more months the citizens would be as prosperous, if not more so, than before the panic of three years ago.

That business in the city and county is improving is shown by the transfers of the past month. During September three hundred and twenty-two deeds and mortgage deeds were recorded in the office of the register of deeds, the total consideration stated in the deeds being in the neighborhood of $110,000. This is an increase of about $15,000 over the preceding month.

The above shows that there is increased activity in the real estate circle in the city and county. Many pieces of property changed hands during the month, but record of the change has not yet been made. Had this been done the total valuation of the real estate sales would have been between $150,000 and $200,000.

Another fact that should be taken into consideration is that the number of mortgage deeds decreased perceptibly during the month, while a large number were cancelled.

WILL ADDRESS WOMAN'S CLUB

Doctors Battle and Harrison Will Talk to the Ladies on Health Conditions.

Members of the Woman's Club are asked to be on hand promptly at 10:30 this morning at the Carnegie library, as there is business of importance to be transacted.

An interesting feature of the meeting will be talks by Dr. J. T. J. Battle and Dr. Edmund Harrison on health conditions in the city, with practical suggestions for cleaning up week, which begins Monday.

It is hoped that every member can be present, and ladies interested in the movement who are not club members, are also invited to attend.

The West Market Street Revival.

Another large congregation was at West Market Street Methodist church last night for the evangelistic service by the pastor, Rev. E. K. McLarty. Several went up for prayer in response to the invitations by the preacher. There will be no service tonight but the men's prayer meeting at noon will be held as usual. This afternoon at 4 in the Epworth League rooms Rev. Mr. McLarty will address a congregation of girls between the ages of ten and sixteen. The usual ladies' prayer meeting will also be held this afternoon.

Marriage Licenses.

During the month of September marriage licenses were issued to fifty-eight couples. Of this number forty-one were for white couples and seventeen for colored couples. This is an increase of sixteen over the preceding month.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

That chronic Bright's Disease is now being cured by treatment that reduces inflammation in the kidneys is beginning to be generally known.

We copy the following from the San Francisco Bulletin, June 22d, 1908:

"The recovery is reported of Mr. Z. Lawton, of 264 Fifth Avenue, San Francisco. The case is especially interesting, due to the fact that books declare chronic Bright's Disease incurable and five city physicians had passed on and diagnosed the case. The usual symptoms found in extreme cases were reported—excessive dropsy, enlarged heart and towards the last the patient could only sleep sitting up, and for six weeks he slept in a chair. Lawton had a cousin, Mrs. W. E. Hoover, of Auburn, who also had an advanced case of Bright's Disease. She had been tapped three times when she heard of Fulton's Renal Compound and made a fine recovery. This interested Lawton in the treatment and it resulted in his recovery also. * * He is a Mason, member of Excelsior Lodge, and many members will recollect his serious predicament and that they thought they would be called on to pass him over."

Parties desiring to know more of this treatment can get full literature by addressing the John J. Fulton Co., 645 Battery street, San Francisco, Cal.

Fulton's Renal Compound can be had in Greensboro at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

We desire every patient to write us who is not noting the usual improvement by the third week.

RHEUMATIC FOLKS.

Are You Sure Your Kidneys Are Well?

Many rheumatic attacks are due to uric acid in the blood. But the duty of the kidneys is to remove all uric acid from the blood. Its presence there shows the kidneys are inactive.

Don't dally with "uric acid solvents." You might go on till doomsday with them, but until you cure the kidneys you will never get well. Doan's Kidney Pills not only remove uric acid, but cure the kidneys and then all danger from uric acid is ended. The following testimony will convince the most skeptical Greensboro citizen:

Mrs. W. C. Moon, Graham, N. C., says: "I suffered from rheumatism for nearly a year and when I stooped the pains were so severe as to cause me the greatest misery. I tried a number of remedies but I did not succeed in finding relief until Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention. I began their use and they helped me in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills proved so satisfactory in my case that I cannot hesitate to recommend them."

ARMY AS TRAINING SCHOOL.

Gen. Leonard Wood Has Decided Views on Subject.

Review of Reviews.

The lessons learned a generation ago by the countries of continental Europe, particularly Germany, as to the value of the training from a citizen army in times of peace are being brought home to the American people in various ways. Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, who has just assumed his new duties as chief of staff, in succesion to Gen. Franklin Bell, has some decided views as to a scientifically organized American Army, with an elastic co-ordination between regulars and militia. He conceives of the army as a training school for young men, even if they are not fitting themselves for a military career. General Wood returned, only last month from Buenos Ayres, where he represented the United States as special ambassador at the Argentina centenary celebrations.

He found the youth of Argentina greatly benefited physicaly, intellectually, and from the standpoint of social discipline, by the universal compulsory military service in that country. General Wood is understood to favor recommending to Congress the organization of "time-expired" men into a strong reserve. The present energetic British Minister of War, Mr. Haldane, has already worked out such a plan in England and the colonies and his territorial army is admitted to be an unqualified success.

As chief of staff, General Wood will have to consider the plan—already recommended and approved by General Bell—of assigning regular army officers to the national guard as instructors. This, taken with more comprehensive schooling for the National Guardsmen and the increase of the cadet corps at West Point, would greatly increase the fighting worth of the militia in war and transform it into a highly valuable training school for the manly qualities in times of peace.

Capt. Bogardus Again Hits the Bull's Eye.

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says:—"I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self." Sold by Howard Gardner.

It is taking some time for the flood of stories anent the discovery of the North Pole to sweep past. Along comes this belated one from old Kentucky:

The owner of a plantation said to a favorite darkey:

"Mose, they've discovered the North Pole."

"Deed!" exclaimed the old negro. "Where at?"—Everybody's Magazine.

RESENT "HOBBLE" EDICT.

Girls Say Fashion is Not as Ugly as Men's Pegtop Trousers.

Chicago Tribune.

Co-eds in hobble skirts, a few of them, minced their way about the Northwestern University campus, despite the rumor that these garments are not to be tolerated by the faculty. However, the fair ones in the hobble skirts are not officially students of the university nor under its hobble-skirt jurisdiction until the formal opening of the institution Friday.

Miss Helen Brown, a co-ed, declared herself an advocate of the hobble skirt. "They are all right," she said. "I have one which I prize very highly. Anyway, the men have no room to criticise them, for they are not half so ugly as the peg-top, cuff trousers."

Miss Hedwig Eisner, another co-ed, wore a hobble skirt. She was interviewed on the campus

"It is my own business what I wear," said Miss Eisner, glancing down at her skirt. "It is not for the faculty to dictate to the girls in regard to their dress. I expect to wear my hobble skirt whenever I feel like it."

Miss Estelle Fleming, also hobble-skirted, said: "I think I myself ought to be the sole judge of what I wear."

Miss Harriet Wheeler, who wore a hobble skirt, but not an extreme one, expressed the opinion that even the ultra hobbles were not so inartistic as "the frock coats men wear."

Miss Helen Wing said: "Any new style—distinctly new—like the hobble skirt, is a good thing, for it arouses interest in women's attire."

Miss Mary Ross Potter, dean of women at the university and preceptress of Willard Hall, the co-ed dormitory, said that she was sure there would be no hobble skirts on the campus after the formal opening of school, although no express ruling against them had been made by the faculty. Asked for her opinion concerning the skirts Miss Potter said. "They are not worthy of comment."

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause breakdowns. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind , take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

"It Beats All."

This is quoted from a letter of M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo. "I recently used Foley's Honey and Tar for the first time. To say I am pleased does not half express my feelings. It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and was threatened with pneumonia. The first dose gave great relief and one bottle completely cured me." Contains no opiates. The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. More than forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood-purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone root and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherrybark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all "wasting diseases" where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed.

In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Though he offers the substitute for a less price you can't afford to experiment with your health. Go where they give you what you ask for without argument.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

WHISTLER TALES.

Some Amusing Peculiarities of the Eccentric Artist.

BARRING OUT BILL BEARERS.

He Knew the Knock of Each Collector and the Amount It Represented. London Cabbies Had Good Reason to Fight Shy of the Erratic Genius.

There was a steady stream of creditors at the King street studio in those days, says a writer in the Century. Whistler made no effort to conceal the fact that he was deeply in debt. One day as we were busily and silently working there came a loud business-like rap at the door. Whistler listened attentively.

"Psst!" said he. "That's one and ten."

Within half an hour there was another rap, not quite so loud.

"Two and six," said Whistler. "Psst!"

"What on earth do you mean?" I asked after a time.

"One pound ten shillings; two pounds six shillings. Vulgar tradesmen with their bills, colonel. They want payment. Ah, well!" he sighed with an exaggerated air of sadness and returned to his canvas.

Then came another knock, a most gentle, insinuating rap.

"Dear me," said Whistler, "that must be all of twenty! Poor fellow, I really must do something for him! So sorry I'm not in."

I could not take the situation so placidly and seized eagerly the first opportunity of financial aid that presented itself. A rich American, sojourning in London, asked me what he could purchase and take back with him in the way of art.

"By all means get a set of Whistler's etchings. Unquestionably he will make for you a selection. I'll speak to him." I told him, and hurried back with the good news.

Whistler was delighted, and for a day worked busily, overhauling and sorting his proofs. The selection was a splendid one and called for a substantial payment. It was arranged that Whistler should meet the purchaser at a bank in Queen street the following morning and receive his check.

Most men under the circumstances would have thought of little else, but by the next morning Whistler had wholly forgotten his engagement. He had begun a new canvas, and was completely absorbed in it. For a while I expostulated in vain.

"Come, Whistler," I said finally, "you have been away from America so long that you don't appreciate the value of time to the traveler, particularly the American traveler. You must not keep the man waiting."

"Very well," said he, laying down his brush, with a sigh. "Now we'll go."

"Why we?" I replied. "I don't want to go," I protested firmly. To tell the truth, I was looking forward with a great deal of comfort to a morning all to myself.

"Oh, but you must," he said calmly, bringing my coat and hat, and presently we stood in front of the house signaling a cab.

One came up readily enough, but, after one scrutinizing look upon the cabby's part, drove swiftly by; another went through the same strange proceedings. I looked questioningly at Whistler—this odd circumstance had happened before we were together—but Whistler was calmly signaling. At length a cabby took us in.

Whistler always carried as a walking stick a long, slender wand, a sort of a mahlstick, nearly three-quarters of his own height. We were no sooner seated than he began poking his stick at the horse. The animal reared, plunged wildly and started down the street at a breakneck gallop, while the astonished cabby swore freely and tugged desperately at the reins. Whistler looked calmly ahead and kept poking.

Butcher boys and grocer boys made wild leaps for safety; outraged cabbies whipped their horses out of the way just in time; burly draymen bawled curses after us, and still we went merrily on. Little wonder, thought I, in the midst of my amazement and resentment, that Whistler never gets the same cab twice.

Suddenly he began waving his cane and shouting "Whoa!" He took the astonished cabby severely to task for driving so fast upon the public highway and ordered him back to a corner we had just passed.

Here a greengrocer's shop, with its orderly and colorful array of fruits and vegetables, had caught Whistler's eye as we whirled by. He surveyed it critically now from two different positions, the cabby merely obeying his orders, under the belief, I presume, that it was policy to humor a lunatic.

"Isn't it beautiful!" exclaimed Whistler. He pointed his long cane at one corner. "I believe I'll have that crate of oranges moved over there—against that background of green. Yes, that's better," he added contentedly.

We drove on to the bank, where we found the American pacing up and down in no pleasant frame of mind; but Whistler soon had him pacified, and we left him waving and smiling adieus at us.

The incident at the greengrocer's shop reads like an arrant affectation. It was not, however. Whistler, as usual, was merely most natural. The following morning he posted his easel at the corner and painted the shop that pleased him.

A little paving is better than none and there is hardly any place where it will be a bigger help than at the rear of the passenger station on Buchanan street.

Democratic State Chairman A. H. Eller showed his usual good judgment when he made R. F. Beasley, editor of the Monroe Journal, head of the literary bureau at Democratic State headquarters. Mr. Beasley is one of the best posted men in the State in political matters. His work will be effective.

"In Washington," says the Philadelphia Record, "some people are concerned about the disappearance of the cent." We venture to say that the trouble is mostly in the South. Down here we are not as particular about the pennies as they are up North. But this is not to say that Southern people shouldn't be more thrifty.

President Taft said a wise thing to the International Prison Congress when he said that it was quite possible to make prisons too comfortable. There is a disposition on the part of some people to indulge in a lot of useless and inexcusable gush about the hardships of prison life. Prison life should be hard otherwise it will not be dreaded.

The Laymen's Conference in this city Tuesday and Wednesday will be a meeting of great importance. Among the missionary leaders present will be J. Campbell White, who is perhaps the biggest man connected with the whole Laymen's Movement. The meeting will not, however, be open to the general public, being intended purely for the missionary workers.

Republican conventions even in New York State appear to be plentifully stocked with office-holders. The Philadelphia Record says:

> A striking feature of the conflict at Saratoga was the array of President Taft's phalanx of Federal officeholders, under Colonel Roosevelt, against the State officials, under Messrs. Woodruff and Barnes. It was, in fact, a warfare of rival officeholders who flaunted opposing banners bearing more or less attractive political legends and promises of promoting the public welfare. If one of the orators, Colonel Gruber, is to be believed, by elimination of the officeholders the convention would have been a beggarly account of empty benches.

Says the Solumbia State:

> The reason assigned by Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis for the dullness in Wall street, that throughout the United States the well-to-do people of the villages and rural districts are establishing industries in which they invest their savings, has more basis, perhaps, than the average business man in the large cities is willing to admit. There are thousands of unlisted securities, never heard of outside of small localities, that are not less safe and profitable than the stocks and bonds in which Wall street deals.
> Twenty-five years ago bank stocks were practically the only local securities for the town and rural people to buy, and the number of banks was about one-fourth of what it is now. In these days we have cotton mills, oil mills, real estate companies, building and loan associations, and a variety of small manufacturing concerns owned by our own people.
> There is quite a pronounced tendency on the part of people nowadays to leave severely alone Wall street and other things the workings of which are unfamiliar and do not lend themselves readily and easily to investigation. Investing in a home concern, one does not take a leap into the darkness. But only eternal vigilance is the price of keeping out of the clutches of the "get rich quick" concerns. Their agents are smooth and resourceful. To resist their wiles one has to stand squarely on the platform that if the stock offered is such a sure money-maker it would be, according to the laws of business, hard instead of easy to buy.

Acquiring a Reputation.

Archbishop Howley. who lived in the eighteenth century. most unjustly got the reputation of swearing like a trooper. The explanation is that the Duke of Cumberland. who fought the battle of Culloden and who was unspeakably profane. once went in quest of the primate to get his assistance about a certain bill which he disliked. He returned to the house of lords. saying: "It's all right. my lords. I've seen the archbishop. and he says he'll see the promoters to —— before he'll vote for the —— bill!" As a matter of fact, all the profanity had been supplied quite in the ordinary run of conversation by the duke.—London Tatler.

Some Pay More.

The man was looking over the family bills as his wife glanced through the paper.

"Oh. John." she said. "it tells here of a young fellow who was fined $6.80 for flirting."

"That's cheaper than I got off." replied the man. his eye still on the bills.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Mean Thing!

Edith—I told Clara. under promise of absolute secrecy. of our engagement. Fred—And she has spoken of it everywhere? Edith—No: the spiteful thing never mentioned it.—Illustrated Bits.

How Careless!

She (sweetly as they sip their tea together)—Isn't this delicious? He (absentmindedly)—Yes. I love to take tea with a little lemon.—Columbia Jester.

When a fool gets angry. he opens his mouth and shuts his eyes.

The man who is in the public eye must expect to be under the lash.

Aaron Burr's Grave.

Aaron Burr died at Port Richmond, Staten Island. Sept. 14. 1836. His remains were conveyed to Princeton. N. J., where. according to his request, he was interred at the feet of his father and grandfather. Both his father and grandfather were presidents of Princeton college.

Concerning the tombstone which marks his burial place, we quote from the history of his life by Parton: "Some efforts were made and some money subscribed soon after his death to procure a suitable monument. but the project failed. For nearly two years the spot where he lay was unmarked when one morning it was discovered that a small, very substantial and not inexpensive monument of granite and marble had been placed during the night over his remains. No one in the town saw the monument erected or knew anything whatever respecting it. There was no stonecutter in the vicinity capable of executing the work. The stone bears the inscription: 'Aaron Burr. Born February, 6, 1756. Died. September 14, 1836.' "—Philadelphia Press.

The Presidential Salute.

One explanation of the reason for adopting twenty-one guns as the presidential salute is that there might be maintained a uniformity in national salutes, Great Britain having in the distant past adopted twenty-one as the number for the royal salute. Of the many surmises as to why the number twenty-one was settled upon we mention two—first, that twenty-one was the number of years fixed by English law as the age of majority; second, that seven was the original salute and three times seven would signify one seven for each of the divisions, England and Wales, Scotland and Ireland. It is asserted that the United States adopted this salute to signify to the mother country that her child had reached his majoriy and was prepared in law to inherit the land and to this end fired the "gun of 1776." the figures of which year, 1+7+7+6, equal 21.—Philadelphia Press.

Underground Hotels.

An extraordinary hotel is that in the sewers of Paris, immediately below the Church of St. Madeleine. It was built and is conducted solely for the benefit of the sewer workers. Nearly a hundred meals are provided every day, and for the sum of $2.40 a man can be comfortably housed and fed for a week in this gigantic drainpipe.

Very similar is the hotel which caters for visitors to the coal mine of St. Pierre at Mons. It is to be found at the bottom of the mine. 600 feet below the earth. and is carved out of solid coal. The electric light on the glittering black walls. which have been left unpapered. is extremely effective. Large reception and bed rooms splendidly fitted up are provided. and the hotel even boasts the luxury of a swimming bath.

Some people only feel that they are in reduced circumstances when they can no longer borrow.

Many a rich old suitor who tells a girl he would die for her is mighty slow about keeping his word.

BALL GAME THIS AFTERNOON

The T. P. A. and U. C. T. Teams To Decide Championship of Diamond At Cone Park.

This afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Cone park the ball teams of the Travelers' Protective Association and the United Commercial Travelers will contest for the championship of the diamond. These teams have played two games and each team has won a game. The boys are in pretty good practice and the contest this afternoon will be hard fought. On the eve of the great battle both sides are confident of victory.

As the game will be free it is expected that a large crowd will go out to witness the contest. Everybody invited.

For the T. P. A. Lynn, who made some fine catches in the previous game, will do the receiving, while Marion or Bagwell will pitch. For the U. C. T. it is probable that Vaughn or Gilliam will toss the horsehide, while Crutchfield will backstop. Among the other players will be Brandt, rf.; Marsh, 1b.; Wharton, lf.; Gaskins, rf.; McNairy, ss.; Pritchett, 3b. U. C. T., Vaughn, 1b.; Hartsook, 2b.; Hayes, 3b.; Marley ss.; Crtuchfield, c.; Gilliam, p.; Riddick, lf.; Miller, cf.; Craddock, rf.; sub., Boone, Wilson, Westbrook, Stroud and others.

A special meeting of Greensboro Council, 296, U. C. T., will be held tonight in the council chamber at [illegible] o'clock. All members are urgently requested to be present as matters of great importance will come before the council. There will also be a smoker and lunch. Everybody come.

NEW BOOKS FOR THE CHILDREN

Thirty-Five Added Today To the Collection At the Carnegie Library—Trustees Will Try To Make Still Better Provision For the Tots.

Thirty-five new books for the children's room of the library today makes the first addition to this department since April. This children's room is a beautiful apartment, and the handsome State flag and pictures placed on its walls by special donations last year add greatly to its attractiveness. That the children appreciate fully this provision for their pleasure is apparent to all who visit the library, yet the supply of books has necessarily always been very inadequate to the service and purpose of the Greensboro Library and at present many volumes still in use are almost too worn for circulation at all.

It is a pleasure to state that the library trustees have recently decided to make a special effort to obtain an additional fund for books, sufficient at least, to fill the shelves of the children's room with the volumes they love so well and which offer at the same time the cheapeset and most wholesome form of enjoyment.

The new books for the children's room are as follows:

Agriculture for Beginners, Burkett, Stevens & Hill.

American Boy's Handy Book, Daniel Carter Beard.

Boy Emigrants, Noah Brooks.

Boy Pioneers, Daniel Carter Beard.

Buccaneers and Pirates, Frank R. Stockton.

Civil Government in N. C. and U. S., William J. Peele.

Elsie at Home, Martha Finley.

Flatiron For a Farthing, Mrs. Ewing.

Great Emergency, Mrs. Ewing.

Half Hours in Southern History, John Leslie Hall.

Harper's Outdoor Book for Boys, Joseph Henry Adams.

House of the Heart and Other Plays, Constance D. Mackay.

Jackanapes, Mrs. Ewing.

Jan, Mrs. Ewing.

Little People Everywhere, Etta MacDonald.

(Kathleen in Ireland, Manuel in Mexico, Rafael in Italy, Ume San in Japan.)

Lob-Lie-by-the-Fire, Mrs. Ewing.

Mary's Meadow, Mrs. Ewing.

Mrs. Overtheway's Remembrances, Mrs. Ewing.

N. C. (Supplement to Tarr and McMurry's Geography) Julius Isaac Foust.

Our Language, C. Alphonso Smith.

Peggy, Laura E. Richards.

Readers (3rd, 4th, and 5th) Will D. Howe.

Scientific American Boy, Alexander R. Bond.

Story of the Old North State, R. D. W. Connor.

Through the Air to the North Pole, Roy Rockwood.

Uncle Remus and the Little Boy, Joel Chandler Harris.

Won in the Ninth, Christopher Mathewson.

Wonderful Adventures of Nile, Selma Lagerlog.

With the Regulators, James Otis Kaler.

Young People's History of N. C., Benj. Harvey Hill.

A girl of 16 is generally so busy giggling that she hasn't time to do anything else.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R .R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., Philadelphia, Pa., Memphis, Tenn., Davenport, Ia., Columbia, S. C., or Portland, Ore., according to where you wish to enter.

Morehead Township Schools.

The Telegram is asked to state that all the public schools in Morehead township will open next Monday, October 3. These schools are McIver school, Battle Ground school, Hodgin's school and Muir's Chapel school.

The Campaign Begins.

The Democratic County candidates will begin the campaign today, the first speaking being at Concord school house in Sumner township. All the candidates will go out this morning. The candidates will be quite active from now on.

Charged With Larceny.

Sam Walker was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of the larceny of a watch from Josephine Sneeds. He is also charged with the theft of another watch. He will be given a hearing before Judge Eure this morning.

Sale of Lots.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. R. L. England conducted a sale of lots on Dick street, for the Union Real Estate Company. Some dwellings and vacant lots sold. The property brought very good prices.

Delicately Formed

and gently reared, women will find in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives and mothers, that the one simple, wholesome laxative remedy, which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally and which may be taken at any time, when the system needs a laxative, with perfect safety and really beneficial effects, is Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

It has that true delicacy of flavor which is so refreshing to the taste, that warming and grateful toning to the stomach which responds so favorably to its action and the laxative effect which is so beneficial to the system when, occasionally, its gentle cleansing is required.

The genuine, always bearing the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., may be purchased from all leading druggists in original packages of one size only, price fifty cents per bottle.

WOMAN'S NIMBLE WIT.

How Miss Phillips, School Teacher, Gave Men a Pointer.

Washington Post.

"When catalogues of American business houses are sent to a foreign country where English is not spoken they usually are consigned immediately to the waste basket," said H. D. Sigler, of Havana, Cuba, at the Arlington.

"It took the American manufacturer and jobber a long time to learn this, but now he has found it out. Consequently, these catalogues are not sent out of the country in such numbers as formerly.. It remained for an American woman to show the American manufacturer how to place his catalogues to advantage.

"Miss Abbie Phillips, supervisor of English in the public schools of Havana, is the originator of the plan. It is probable that her idea was the result of the scarcity of English textbooks and the inability of parents to buy them. At any rate, Miss Phillips sent letters to a number of American manufacturers asking for bundles of their illustrated catalogues. They complied with the request willingly, and Miss Phillips soon had enough of these books to supply a large number of the pupils. Now the little Cuban is reading about thrashing machines and reapers, and safety razors and ice-cream freezers. The subject matter may not be thrilling, but the pictures in most of the catalogues are attractive, and the boys and girls are interested by them. It seems to me that this method should be of material advantage to the American business man, as these little people will be men and women some day, and undoubtedly will remember some of their lessons from the catalogues. In future years American trade should reap the advantage."

A Generous and Charitable Wish.

"I wish all might know of the benefit I received from your Foley's Kidney Remedy," says I. N. Regan, Farmer, Mo. His kidneys and bladder gave him so much pain, misery and annoyance, he could not work nor sleep. He says Foley's Kidney Remedy completely cured him. Sold by Howard Gardner.

Funerals In England.

At the time of Queen Victoria's funeral a writer in the Undertakers' Journal complained that, while royal burals were still conducted in an impressive manner, a sad lack of ceremonial distinguished the funerals of the nobility. "Item after item has been abandoned, idea after idea has been dropped, each meaning a distinct loss to our business. An undertaker in the west end, referring to the recent death of a noble lord, confided to me: 'Forty years ago I buried a member of that family, and the funeral bill came to £1,250 ($6,250). Ten years later I buried another, when it came to just over £700 ($3,500). Fifteen years ago I buried a third, at a cost of £320 ($1,600), but the bill for this one did not reach £75 ($375).'"

Origin of a Famous Saying.

Euclid, who is sometimes called the father of mathematics, taught this subject in the famous school at Alexandria. Being asked one day by the king of Egypt (Ptolemy Soter) whether he could not teach him the science in a shorter way, Euclid answered in words that have been memorable ever since, "Sire, there is no royal road to learning." Not many scraps of conversation have lived, as this reply has, for 2,200 years.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at these will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of native American medical, forest plants. TRIES TO DIE BESIDE HIS FIANCEE'S GRAVE.

Young man Heartbroken Over Her Death Shoots Himself in Lutheran Cemetery.

New York World.

Despondent over the death of his sweetheart three weeks ago, Harry Tasser, twenty-six years old, a machinist of No. 165 Cooper street, Evergreen, Queens, yesterday shot himself beside his fiancee's grave. At the German Hospital, Williamsburg, where he was taken, it was said he could not recover.

Tasser was engaged to marry Miss Elsie Kirchner, nineteen years old, of Glendale. They were devoted and three weeks ago, when she died, Tasser was almost beside himself with grief. Since then he had not worked at his trade and was gloomy and despondent.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon his mother returned from a shopping tour and found a note on the dining room table signed by her son Harry. In it he said he was going to the Lutheran Cemetery at Middle Village, where his sweetheart was buried, and kill himself on her grave. Mrs. Tasser ran out of the house and told his brother Charles and his brother-in-law, Henry Wolf. They started at once for the cemetery.

Had they known the exact location of the plot where the girl was buried the suicide attempt might have been prevented. The cemetery covers considerable territory, and the two men hurried in and out among the graves searching for Harry. They had given up the search and started for the entrance when they heard the report of a pistol in a secluded part of the cemetery.

They ran to the spot and found the young man stretched beside a grave unconscious, with a revolver at his side. Blood was gushing from a wound over the heart.

It Saved His Leg.

"I thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swensen, of Watertown, Wis. "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it, sound and well." Infallible for Skin Eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Boils, Fever Sores, Burns, Scalds, Cuts and Piles. 25c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

LIGHTNING POLKA-DOTS HER.

Freakish Bolt Speeds Along Wire Wash Line Into Woman.

Altoona, Pa., Sept. 30.—Lightning never performed a more freakish stunt than in the case reported from East Altoona. Mrs. H. E. Gingerich had hung the family washing on a wire stretched between the house and a pear tree, and, seeing a storm approaching, went out to take it down.

When thus engaged, lightning struck the tree, and sped along the wire, knocking her violently to one side. Her dress, from neck to ankles, was polka-dotted with holes the size of a cent. These holes looked as if they had been cut with a knife, for there were not the sign of a scorch about them.

Underneath each perforation, however, was a large blister raised on the cuticle, resembling scalds. Her garters were severed as cleanly as if the cutting had been done with a knife, and the electricity had heated the eyelets of her shoes red hot, thus burning her instep most painfully.

She is suffering severely from shock.

Left $75,000, But None for Sons, Who "Got More Than Share."

New York, Sept. 30.—The will of Mrs. Frances Victoria Sankey, widow of Ira D. Sankey, the singing evangelist, was filed in Brooklyn yesterday. The will dated February 24, 1909, contains this paragraph:

"I don't devise or bequeath anything to my sons—John E. Sankey and Ira D. Sankey—for the reason that they have already received more than their share of their father's estate."

An interest in the estate, which amounts in all to $75,000, is bequeathed to Mrs. Ira D. Sankey's two grandchildren—Ira, Jr., and Grave V. There are several charitable bequests.

PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST.

EXHIBITION BY THE RED MEN

Spectacular Parade Followed by Capture of Pale Face—Redskins Burn Victim At Stake—Large Crowd Present in Auditorium To Witness the Exhibition —The Sham Battle Greatly Enjoyed.

Fully a thousand people gathered in the auditorium last night to witness the exhibition by the Improved Order of Red Men. The exhibition, while not lasting for more than an hour, was quite thrilling, especially the burning of the chief of the paleface band at the stake while the redskins danced gleefully around funeral pyre. The affair was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the members of the order left the hall of Minneota Tribe, No. 52, on North Elm street and marched in Indian fashion to the railroad crossing and back to Sycamore going on to the Auditorium. They were headed by the Great Pontiac, followed by the Great Jossokeeds and his chiefs. A number of the warriors carried torches, which made the spectacle quite imposing.

In the Auditorium were two camps, one occupied by the Indians and the other by a band of whites. The latter had erected a hut in the east end and in the west end the Indians had erected numerous tepees, or wigwams. A great bonfire was kindled in the center and the chiefs gathered near the fire while the warriors circled around.

The light from the Indian camp fire first attracted the attention of the whites and a scout was sent out to reconnoiter. He took in the situation and it was deemed advisable to keep quiet and be on the lookout. The Indians then saw the camp fire of the whites and sent out three scouts and these skulked around, crawling, sneaking and peeping in true Indian style. After they had studied the location of the camp they returned as they came and reported their find to the great chief. He gave a couple of mysterious waves of his hand and uttered several gutteral sounds which aroused the entire tribe like magic. With a series of warhoops the redskins advanced. They stealthily covered the ground between them and the whites, it being evident that the intention was to surround the band. Meanwhile the crowd was on the tiptoe of expectancy. However, the whites were on the lookout and a volley of shots from the cabin made three redskins bite the dust. Then two hundred revolvers barked almost as one and three whites fell in their tracks. In the meelee that followed fully a thousand shots were fired and the hut was surrounded. One redskin crawled up and set the hut on fire. As the men who had taken refuge behind the walls rushed forth to escape the flames they were met by the balls from the Indians' revolvers. The last man ran forth only to be caught hurled to the ground by a score of the redskins.

With his arms pinioned to his sides the victim was led before the great chief. A council of war was held, the result being the decision to burn him at the stake. This was greeted by loud and exultant warhoops from the Indians and the prisoner was led away to the stake. Here the warriors crowded around and with the dexterity of a magician the victim was supplanted by a dummy, the transposition being so cleverly done that it was practically impossible to realize what was done. The torch was applied and the dummy, which had been thoroughly saturated with some inflammable material, burned rapidly, the warriors going through one of their ghastly dances meanwhile.

Mr. W. L. Stamey, of High Point, Great Sachem of North Carolina, then made a short talk that was liberally applauded. The exhibition closed with lariat work by a local performer and a bag race between several boys. The latter was quite funny, the boys getting several falls as they tried to make record speed in the sacks.

Minneota tribe was assisted by Enoe tribe, of Revolution, and members from the High Point, Reidsville, Spray, Winston, Burlington and Graham tribes.

The object of the exhibition was to increase interest in the Improved Order of Red Men, the tribes being engaged in the work of increasing the membership in the state quite materially. It is hoped to increase the membership fifteen hundred before the next meeting of the Great Council.
